

Macy Swaim

Macy Swaim is a young creator working to make her mark in the industry. She is an extremely versatile dancer who has trained and worked in the styles of contemporary, hip hop, heels, jazz and jazz funk. Originally from Jacksonville, FL, Macy moved across country to Las Vegas where she trained vigorously in ballet, contemporary, and aerial work. Since moving to LA at the age of 19, she has worked for artists such as, Rihanna, Jennifer Lopez, Billie Eilish, The Weeknd, Camilla Cabello, Charlie Puth, Zedd, Maren Morris, Kanye West, Juliane Hough, Vanilla Ice, and many more. She has worked with the choreographers of Charm LaDonna, Sara and Calvit, Dana Foglia, Kyle Hanagami, Galen Hooks, Parris Goebel, Brian Friedman, Zachary Venegas, Nappy Tabs, and HiHat.

As a teacher and educator, Macy uses her versatility in applying a fusion of styles to challenge her students and show that education in more than one style is extremely useful. She loves to incorporate her flow and athleticism of contemporary with energetic and hard hitting hip hop technique. She also loves to express true passion when she dances, spreading positivity and confidence to help influence the community to support one another and dwell into what they love most about moving and dancing, pulling out individuality while maintaining a collective class.
