

Alison Faulk

Alison Faulk was born in South Florida; she was inspired by her musical parents to start dancing at age 3. At 19, she moved to LA to study on Tremaine Scholarship which opened her mind, expanded and shaped her dancing, and prepared her for the professional dance career that she dreamed of.

Through out Alison's dance career, she has had the good fortune to perform with Janet Jackson, P!NK, Justin Bieber, Britney Spears, LL Cool J, Miley Cyrus, Paula Abdul, Paulina Rubio, and Missy Elliot, to name a few. She has also appeared in the films Step Up 2, You Got Served, Honey 2, Along Came Polly, Save the Last Dance 2, American Beauty, and Austin Powers 1 and 2. Alison has also been featured on countless music award shows and sitcoms. She is an original member of the Groovalos and a member of the all female crew the Beat Freaks.

As a choreographer, Alison has worked on projects with Madonna, P!NK, Jennifer Lopez, Britney Spears, The Lonely Island, Brett Eldredge, Ricky Martin, and Victoria Justice. Some of her film/tv credits include Magic Mike, Magic Mike XXL, The Mindy Project, It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia, Fat Camp, Naked, Book Club, The Babysitter, and 50 Shades of Black. She was also a part of the Tatum Takeover on LipSync Battle, as well as with Joseph Gordon Levitt.

Her latest project was a collaboration with Channing Tatum and her partners Teresa Espinosa and Luke Broadlick – Magic Mike Live is a truly captivating, interactive experience and dance show that sets out to give women more of what they truly want. It is currently playing at the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas.
