

BROOKLYN JAI

Brooklyn began his dance career at age 13, quickly establishing himself as a versatile performer and artist. He has appeared in a wide range of high-profile TV shows and events, including Keeping Up with the Kardashians (Bravo), Love & Hip Hop (VH1), Castle (ABC), Ridiculousness (MTV), and Leave It to Niecy (TLC). Brooklyn's other credits include major events like Miss Universe, the Jingle Ball Concert with JoJo, Hardcore Pawn (truTV), and a viral iPod commercial. He's also featured in the Miss Russian LA reality show and has participated in a Hip-Hop Experience video game on Xbox.

In addition to his television and commercial work, Brooklyn has toured China six times as a recording artist and worked with top names in the music industry, including Lil' Kim, Destiny's Child, Ashlee Simpson, JoJo, Mya, China Anne McClain, Lyrical Anderson, Marcus Houston, and Charice. He's also supported causes like Madonna's Home of Hope charity.

Brooklyn currently shares his expertise by teaching weekly classes at the prestigious Debbie Allen Dance Academy and Millennium Dance Complex in Los Angeles.