

MALIA BAKER

Malia Baker is a professional dancer, choreographer, and teacher. She spent her early training years in Colorado Springs, and after moving to Los Angeles at the age of eighteen, Malia began working professionally. She has performed in commercials, television shows, movies, and live performances for networks and notable brands including NBC, Nike, Disney, Hermès, Capital One, and Don Julio. Her credits include serving as a choreographer and dancer for Sofi Tukker and Purple Disco Machine, as well as appearing in Mariah Carey's "All I Want For Christmas Is You (25th Anniversary)" music video and the musical film Valley Girl (2020).

In addition to dancing, Malia loves to create and inspire through choreography and teaching. Over the past decade, she has taught in public schools, studios, and conventions around the world. Currently based in Los Angeles, Malia teaches at renowned studios including TMILLY, Millennium Dance Complex, and Movement Lifestyle. Most recently, in 2023, she joined Bob's Dance Shop as a dancer, choreographer, and resident "LadyBob."

Malia believes that dance is a universal language that transcends barriers, and she hopes to use it to bring communities together. Through her teaching, performing, and choreography, she aims to make dance accessible to everyone who watches and aspires to inspire others to discover the joy of movement.
