

Sienna Lyons is a well versed choreographer, educator, and dancer based out of Los Angeles, CA. Making the life changing move 12 years ago, Sienna has experienced the entertainment industry on all sides from dancing back-up for artists such as JLo, Taylor Swift, Pharrell, and Selena Gomez, to choreographing for Gwen Stefani, tv show The Masked Singer, Kidz Bop world tours and music videos for the past 4 years, and assistant choreographer fo Janet Jacksons Vegas residency. Sienna has the hands on experience and knowledge to help future dancers and choreographers fulfill their dreams and goals.

While loving the entertainment industry, Sienna also holds a strong passion for teaching/educating dancers of all ages! Her teaching journey began at 16 years old at her home studio, Elizabeths Dance Dimensions in Seattle Washington where here mentor/teacher Elizabeth Lanning saw choreographing and teaching was something she could do well from a young age. 2012 was her start to teaching in LA at the famous Debbie Reynolds Dance Studio. She also teaches at studios Movement Lifestyle and TMilly productions. Dance styles taught include Heels/Heels Technique, Jazz, Jazz Funk, and commercial hiphop. Sienna does not take her duty as an educator lightly and finds pure joy when seeing growth in her students!

Coming from a technical background, Sienna runs a focused, hard working class consisting of conditioning the body, intricate clean movement, musicality/understanding music, and of course pure performance elements. Although her classes are challenging, it is guaranteed you will leave feeling empowered and inspired to continue training!
